The Rooster Crows

A Newsletter of the Catholic Cursillo of the Diocese of Knoxville

NOW IS THE TIME FOR ALL GOOD CURSILLISTAS TO COME TO THE AID OF THE MOVEMENT

This month I come to you with an important message. While the Cursillo Movement in our diocese has made great strides in the past few years, we have developed a serious problem.

As you are aware, we are now having six to eight weekends a year. In order to do that, we need a lot of help and therein lay our problem. We need help setting up the weekends, manning the kitchens, manning the Palanca Chapel and the biggest of all need—cleaning up on Sunday. Have you thought about what you are doing to help? If we could get everyone to help one day a year, there would be no problem. Now to expect everyone to help may be a little naive, so if every good Cursillista would work two days, we really would solve our problem. What about your group or Ultreya getting together and volunteering together?! The Secretariat and the Three day Leadership have been working hard to get our operations on track so that we can have a smooth weekend and get the volunteers out of there at a reasonable time, which has been a problem in the past. Please contact any of the Secretariat, and they will help get your group scheduled. Please pray that the Holy Spirit inspires YOU and others to help. Have you thought recently about why we have Cursillo? What's its real purpose? According to Edwardo Bonnin, one of our founders, the purpose of Cursillo is to bring our community to being more Christian.

We begin that by bringing someone to the weekend and continuing our friendship afterwards by introducing them into a group and to our Ultreyas. By supporting them at least until they have been assimilated into the community, we insure that we have done everything we should have as a friend and/or sponsor. This is what the Holy Spirit is asking us to do. What can you do? What will you do? Please share in the load. Share in making Cursillo a home for Christians under construction. We have a great opportunity and together we can do it. Thank you for reading this and for considering doing your share.
