Geographical Groupings by Dick Shriver

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

My name is Dick Shriver and I made Cursillo #51 in Indianapolis, Indiana, in the Spring of 1984. I started small group reunion 18 months before I made my Cursillo weekend. Grouping was a great awakening experience for me and paved the way for me to understand the Cursillo Movement and be open on the weekend to let go and let God. Since then, I was told that grouping was something one did after one made the Cursillo weekend, however, it is in fact encouraged by the National Cursillo Movement. Bringing candidates to group reunion fits the Cursillo method of make a friend, be a friend and bring a friend to Christ. In my case it instilled the discipline and accountability of what I learned on my Cursillo weekend: Daily study, Piety, and Action. Small Group reunion gave me the support and trust in others to know we all have ups and downs in life and gave me the courage to persevere. Ultreya gave me the opportunity to experience group reunion in a broader way. Grouping has helped me see the bigger picture of how God works in others outside my small group. Thus, you should consider bringing candidates to your group reunion. As the newly elected Post Cursillo Chairman on the Secretariat, I feel a call to make small group reunions and Ultreya a Geographical opportunity for all cursillistas to be in a small group reunion and to attend Ultreyas.

What we learned on our Cursillo weekend is only good if we use it. If you are not in a small group or attending Ultreyas or weekend closings, please give me a call and I will help you get started.

De Colores!

Happy New Year!
