The Rooster Crows

Blessed August!

DID YOU KNOW?

As of 2012, there are 17,644 Catholic parishes in the United States, served by 38,964 priests and 17,289 permanent deacons.

There are 3,389 parishes in the US which do not have a resident priest!

Pray for vocations!

The gifts of grace increase as the struggles increase.

The Director's Chair

Building on a Firm Foundation

by Lois Schering, Lay Director

We welcome Guadalupe Espinoza as the new Director of the Spanish Cursillo (3-day Weekend). Guadalupe was elected at our June Secretariat meeting. When you see her, please offer your assistance, as “many hands make light work.”

We are looking for a Web Master. The duties of this job are adding, deleting and making changes to the web page. Are you tech savvy? If you are willing to serve in this capacity, please let me know at schering4@aol.com. Robb Morris has stepped down from this position. We thank him for his many years of service as Web Master.

In the last edition of the Rooster Crows, I spoke about the English women's Cursillo being held at Grace Point in Kingston on Sept. 26-29. In order to have a Cursillo closer to the Knoxville area, it will require us to raise the cost of the weekend from $125 to $140 per person. We can offer limited scholarships for those few candidates that might be unable to pay, and greatly appreciate additional donations from any interested cursillistas. Sponsors—please convey this information to your candidates.

Beginning with the fall English women's weekend, and subsequent weekends, the cutoff date for receiving registrations is one month prior to the Cursillo weekend, that is, in this case, August 25 (this gives us enough time to notify Grace Point). We must have enough candidates by that date, so get those applications in!

Next year, we will set a proposed date for a weekend, but we will not choose a Rector/Rectora and team until we get 10 applications. This is a new procedure that we hope will alleviate the need to cancel weekends for lack of candidates.

The Secretariat will vote at its August meeting to make a change to our Pastoral Plan regarding the Fourth Day Workshops: to “Develop a format to go from meeting every other month, to monthly 4th Day Workshops, by setting up a committee to look into the feasibility of such a plan.”

The following positions are up for election/re-election this year: Lay Director, English PreCursillo and English 3-Day Cursillo. If you are, or have been, on a Secretariat, in the diocese of Knoxville or in some other diocese in the US, you are eligible to run for the Lay Director's position. Duties and information on these positions are elsewhere in the Rooster Crows.

The Regional Service Committee (Region IV) has elected Bruce Bonenberger as the new Regional Coordinator, effective in October, 2013. Bruce is from the Diocese of Evansville, IN. We thank Linda Gruber from the Memphis Diocese, for moving our region forward these past three years.

In the event you are not already aware of it, National Cursillo has a new pledge campaign this year. After 2 months of studying and analyzing the operation and finance of the National Cursillo Center (NCC), Hoang Tran, the new National Cursillo Center Administrator, came up with a solution to improve the effectiveness of the NCC: the $3/Year Donation Campaign. There are more than one million Cursillistas who have lived a Cursillo Weekend in the United States. If 10% of the total Cursillistas donate $3/year to the National Cursillo Movement, miraculous things will happen:

- ♦ The NCC will achieve its financial and operational stability.
- ♦ The NCC will have the budget to revive dormant diocesan movements and to establish the Cursillo movements in some areas.
- ♦ The NCC will have the budget to translate good books for each language, and establish effective communication channels by means of audio and video technology.
- ♦ The National Encounter will be more affordable for every Cursillista.
- ♦ Your donation will help to offset some expenses of the Encounter and therefore drive the cost down.

If you have not already sent in a donation, you may donate online at www.natl-cursillo.org or send a check to National Cursillo at P. O. Box 799, Jarrett, TX 76537. Your donation is tax deductible.

We're ONE and inseparable in the Mystical Body of Christ. The National Cursillo Center is experiencing challenges and really needs your support. A $3/year or $15 donation for the next 5 years will move our beloved Cursillo Movement forward to the next level. The miracle will happen and it is indeed in your hands now. Your prompt action is greatly appreciated! From June 2013 National Mailing, National Cursillo Center

Cursillo and the New Evangelization

I recently spoke at the Diocesan Encounter about the New Evangelization, since this is one of the calls of our Cursillo movement—to be transformed by Christ into evangelizers.

There was a synod of bishops on this topic, which generated some interesting comments for us to ponder. Cardinal Dolan of New York quoted Fulton Sheen and G.K. Chesterton in calling for a greater emphasis on sacramental confession, which he termed "the primary sacrament of the New Evangelization." In other words, we need to prepare ourselves before evangelizing others, and work on our own Piety as Cursillistas.

Archbishop Socrates Villegas of the Philippines made a comment that reminds us of the Study of the Environment rollo in Cursillo, "Why is there a strong wave of secularization, a storm of antipathy or plain cold indifference, towards the church in some parts of the world, necessitating a new wave of evangelization programs?"

He challenges us with more preparation of ourselves in the following areas:

"The new evangelization calls for new humility. The Gospel cannot thrive in pride. When pride seeps into the heart of the Church, the Gospel proclamation is harmed. Our mission is to propose humbly, not to impose proudly. The Church must learn humility from Jesus. God's power and might appears in the self-emptying of the Son, in the love that is crucified but truly saves, because it is emptied of self for the sake of others."

"Secondly, the new evangelization must be done by new saints, and we must be those saints." Our Piety calls us to holiness and to evangelize, by example as well as by our words. "Everybody is looking for models to inspire and emulate," he continued. Let us, as Cursillistas, be among them.

"Lastly, the new evangelization must be a call for new charity. We will be credible bringers of Gospel joy if the proclamation is accompanied by its twin messenger of charity. The charity of Jesus is the gift of Himself. The charity of the new evangelization must be the gift of Jesus." Our Action must show that we live what we believe. The kindness that accompanies our presence with others shows that Christ is alive in us, and that the fruits of the Holy Spirit are alive in us.

"The Church must discover the power of silence," he went on. "Confronted with the sorrows, doubts and uncertainties of people, she cannot pretend to give easy solutions. In Jesus, silence becomes the way of attentive listening, compassion and prayer. It is the way to truth." One aspect of Study is receiving what the Lord wants to reveal to us. Our silent prayer can guide us with the Lord's wisdom, to know that which we should study, and so prepare ourselves for the Lord's work.

I also found some reflections from a priest who had recently been on a pilgrimage called the "footsteps of Paul." Paul is our patron in Cursillo. The priest noted that we ride buses with comfortable cushions, while Paul walked those roads with uncomfortable shoes. He reflected that a way we could start evangelizing is to stop complaining!

Complaining is usually about me, or how something affects me, and it has a selfish component. Many times it is not constructive or does not lead to a solution, but only dampens others' spirits. It also may lead others not to hope, not to try, or even to give up. Are we spreading this message in Cursillo? Are we putting first the message of what Christ did for us? Paul put Christ first, and did his own Palanca, as it were, in the form of his own hardships. The pilgrim priest noted that we are in the footsteps of Paul, who, for love of Jesus Christ, was whipped five times, beaten with rods three times, stoned once, shipwrecked, "in toil and hardship, through many sleepless nights, through hunger and thirst, through frequent fastings, through cold and exposure" (2 Cor 11:24-27).

Listen to these words of St. John Chrysostom about St. Paul: "The most important thing of all to him...was that he knew himself to be loved by Christ. Enjoying this love, he considered himself happier than anyone else; were he without it, it would be no satisfaction to be the friend of principalities and powers. He preferred to be thus loved and be the least of all, or even to be among the damned, than to be without that love and be among the great and honored."

"To be separated from that love was, in his eyes, the greatest and most extraordinary of torments; the pain of that loss would alone have been hell, and endless, unbearable torture. So too, in being loved by Christ, he thought of himself as possessing life, the world, the angels, present and future, the kingdom, the promise and countless blessings. Apart from that love nothing saddened or delighted him; for nothing earthly did he regard as bitter or sweet."

The pilgrim priest related Paul's strategy of Evangelization, which is very similar to our Cursillo method of: Make a friend, be a friend, bring a friend to Christ. "How can we experience this fire of Christ's love? If it is passed on to one person at a time, we can reach out to Paul and receive the torch from him, from his writings, example and prayers."

In conclusion, let us reflect on the call of the U.S. Bishop's to prepare, to pray, and to act, as the Holy Spirit continues the work of the Church and her members. "The focus of the New Evangelization calls all Catholics to be evangelized, and then go forth to evangelize. In a special way, the New Evangelization is focused on 're-proposing' the Gospel to those who have experienced a crisis of faith.

"Proclaiming Jesus Christ the only Savior of the World today is more complex than in the past; but our task remains identical to that at the dawn of our history. The mission has not changed, just as the enthusiasm and courage that moved the Apostles and first disciples must not change. The Holy Spirit which prompted them to open the doors and made evangelizers of them (cf. Acts 2: 1-4) is the same Spirit which today moves the Church to a renewed proclamation of hope for the people of our time. St. Augustine affirms that we must not think that the grace of evangelization was extended only to the Apostles, and with them that fount of grace was exhausted, but 'this fount is revealed when it flows, not when it ceases to pour out.'"

DIOCESAN AND NATIONAL ENCOUNTERS 2013

The Deacon's Two Cents

So You Want To be a Sponsor?

By Deacon Bill Jacobs

In reflecting on the many times that I have sponsored a candidate for a Cursillo weekend, the Holy Spirit has given me some insights on how to sponsor. But first, here is a compendium of how to NOT sponsor a candidate:

Start with someone you barely know. “I see them at church all the time – they’d be a great candidate!” They might be having some marital difficulties, but that’s OK; maybe the weekend will straighten things out for them! Make sure you pick someone who is already involved in a dozen parish ministries. If they object, tell them that Cursillo would be “a great retreat” for them, three pleasant days away from the world – certainly don’t mention to them anything about a Fourth Day commitment of Group Reunion or Ultreya. And it’s OK if you sponsor someone but you are not attending a Group Reunion yourself – that’s not important to Cursillo, is it? But if you are grouping, you wouldn’t want your candidate to join your “closed” Group Reunion. And once the 3 Day Weekend is completed, your sponsorship responsibilities are done – don’t bring them to Ultreya, in fact you don’t even have to call them anymore.

This paragraph includes mistakes that I have made at one time or another, so I need to learn from this too! Perhaps we can all commit to following some rules for good sponsorship:

Rule #1 – pray. Rules #2, 3, 4, and 5 – repeat rule #1.

(Talk to God about man, before talking to man about God)

Be sure that you have developed a friendship with a potential candidate. (Make a friend, be a friend, bring that friend to Christ.) Understand their personal situation well. Remember that the weekend is not run by psychologists or marital counselors, so maybe this is not the right time for them to make a weekend. If they are married, you should consider following the procedure that is mentioned on page 7 of this newsletter. (Boy, did I do this wrong once!)

Make sure that they understand that the purpose of the 3 Day Weekend is to prepare them for their Fourth Day commitments of Group Reunion and Ultreya. This is what sustains all of us in our Cursillo journey, and the candidate should be ready to embrace this too. Invite them to join your Group Reunion, and bring them to your next Ultreya. (You are going to Ultreya, right?) Your sponsorship commitment does not end with bringing them home from the Clausura.

On page 3 of this newsletter, Father Alex talks about the New Evangelization. Cursillo is a privileged way that the Spirit can develop and nurture “laborers for the harvest” (Cf. Luke 10:2). Our sponsorship role is an important part of God’s plan. Let’s get it right!

What to know about Sponsoring Couples by Lois Schering

Before sponsoring an individual, you must always determine if that individual is married. If the individual is not married, then proceed with the responsibilities of sponsorship (as outlined in the Sponsor's booklet. However, if the individual is married, then certain steps must be followed before sponsorship takes place (if it does at all):

The purpose of the Cursillo Movement is to evangelize environments through the natural leaders of those environments. With this in mind, and taking into consideration the pluralistic society in which we live, we will encounter situations where a spouse may not be Catholic, or the spouse of that natural leader does not wish to attend the Cursillo Weekend.

When selecting a person for Cursillo, male or female, it should be determined if that person is married before preparing that person for Cursillo. Even though the Cursillo Weekend is lived individually, the spiritual life of the couple, both before and after the Weekend, must be considered. The Cursillo Movement holds in highest regard the Sacrament of Marriage, and if participation in a Cursillo by one, and not the other, might have an adverse effect on that Sacrament, then we suggest some other form of individual spiritual renewal.

Once it is known by the sponsor that the person is married, they need to determine whether both are eligible to attend the Cursillo, or if both are interested in attending the Cursillo weekend. If something would prevent one spouse from attending, because that individual cannot or should not go, or that person does not wish to attend, then the following steps should be taken:

1. It is suggested that the sponsor meet with the couple. The sponsor may ask another leader from the 4th Day Workshop, a member of the Secretariat, or the Spiritual Advisor, to assist him/her in the meeting.
2. During this meeting, a full explanation of the purpose/method of the Movement would be given.
3. A complete explanation of what is expected of those who attend the 3-Day weekend is given.
4. Most importantly, an explanation is given of what is expected during the Fourth Day (Group Reunion and Ultreya).
5. If both agree that one spouse attending the Weekend, while the other spouse does not, will not have an adverse effect on their Sacrament of Marriage, then the one who is eligible and wants to attend should be allowed to do so.

In the case where both are eligible and both agree to attend the Cursillo Weekend, then both should be prepared at the same time and the question of who attends first is not important. (See pgs. 18-22 of the Sponsor's Booklet)

Secretariat Position

Term will be 2014-2017

Lay Director Position:

The Lay Director holds the office for a three year term. The individual interacts with National and Regional Secretariats to ensure that proper procedure and commitment to the movement is primary. The Lay Director leads by example and reports to the Bishop on an annual basis. The Lay Director, in essence, is the servant's servant. The Lay Director prepares an agenda for the Secretariat meetings and handles with the help of the Secretariat the issues that need to be resolved. A nominee for Lay Director must have served at least one year on the Secretariat to be eligible to run. The one year experience does not need to be in our diocese. An election for the position will be held at the October meeting of Secretariat.

If the Holy Spirit is calling you to serve our Movement in this capacity, please submit your name in nomination. Contact Lois Schering at schering4@aol.com.

"In the area of religion, the secret of courage is: 'I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me.' Responsibilities are no longer burdensome if one realizes that the Divine works in us. Want of courage is want of faith." – Fulton Sheen
